Allowable Subject Matter

1. Claims 1-9 and 14-20 are allowed.
2. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

Regarding claim 1 and dependent claims:

A multilayer circuit board comprising a base board with two conductor layer separated by two insulating layer having a first hole, formed through the base board and filled with an insulating material, and a pair of second holes formed within the first hole through the insulating portion, in combination with a third conductor layer disposed between the two insulating layers, either a power layer or a ground layer, has not been disclosed by the prior art alone or in combination.

Regarding claims 4, 14 and 15:

A wiring board comprising a base board, with a first through hole formed in the base board, filled with insulator, and a pair of second holes formed within the first hole through the insulating portion, wherein a shortest length of the insulator filled between the pair of the second holes is shorter than a shortest length of the insulator filled between the first hole and one of the second holes, has not been disclosed by the prior art alone or in combination.

3. Claims 1-4 are directed to an allowable product. As claims 5-7 and 16-18 are directly depending upon the allowed claims and include all the limitations of the allowed
